New York Eribune

First to Last-the Truth: News-Editorials-Advertisements

TUESDAY, APRIL 25, 1922

GUARANTY

You can purchase prochandise advortised in life TRIBUNE with absolute safety—for it distatisfactor results as an occasion to the TRIBUNE was a second of the tribune of tribune o

Disrupters at Genoa

Premier Poincaré said vesterday Genoa could not go ahead with its demnity to the Germans. work under the agreed conditions which fill the Genoa dispatches have hould be barred. But there has been man reparations to Russia, if any, quering heroes. should go into the Allied reparaon fund. This brought on the first were clearly the offenders against exiled from the commission dealing phasized the restrictions put on con- from a special mission to Japan. ference activities when they closed If, then, the reception to Joffre is saying: "The undersigned expressiv which may be recognized as contrary technical experts here assembled are when he came here in 1917. in the childish position of having question which is both urgent and While voting $360,000 for free Strategy in these quarters seems di- by July 1, 1923.

the piece, persecuting "poor Ger- the North American commission.

ing disruption at Genoa.

with the payment of the foreign debt ican business men. makes a sham of the one and in- That such an organization has Sociology and political economy

More serious, however, is the ef- countries.

solved only after the most careful Latin nations. consideration of all the different elements that enter into it. cussion is merely to invest it with for good moral character in new pirations. all the prejudices and passions which contracts with motion picture stars | It is possible to diffuse a working international policy with local poli- Whether the clause is of his devising relations of co-operation to proties and will confuse it by intro- or not, it is merely the product of duction and a host of other ascerducing elements which belong in sound business sense. reality to a different problem.

cient to condemn the proposal of in that their appeal is as much to unselfish, is foolish and intelligent complications in the development of our foreign pelicy.

Marshal Joffre Passes Through reasoning.

or returning from other parts, or lately forced out of office because of which most sociological discussion That rosy knees of Sultans' wives simply as a private citizen, Marshal unpleasant notoriety he had gained Joffre is always welcome in New on the outside. No man of bad moral York. He symbolizes the fighting character could be elected to any preserve chiefly of professors of spirit of France, which under his important office in the country. Mo- Aristotelian or Platonian habits of reputitionation of all other matter own direction gave the Germans tion picture people known to lead distheir first and heaviest check in the solute lives will never be popular of a more scientific point of view 1914, the course of world history the great majority of American Bacon would have been changed, and Amer- citizens. nat if the French delegation at ica might now be paying an in-

The America of May, 1917, wild kept clean and those who engage in ticipating in the war, and proud to direct it will contribute to the pubhave finished the degrading ordeal lie welfare by hiring only persons picture interests. arisen chiefly from efforts to annul of official neutrality in a cause in who know enough to keep out of the limitations laid down by the in- which Americans could not be and scandals. Incidentally they will save vance that discussion of existing ferent from the America of April, may in the future have to be kept. pression. The emotional state cre- mit the dissemination of pictures in of reach of similar temptation. ated by the war manifested itself in which notoriously badly behaving enthusiastic outbursts of patriotism actors are featured. amend the Versailles Treaty by killing that section of it by which Ger- United States were received as coneign dignitaries traveling in the

To-day the emotionalism of the war armony. Germany was accordingly outward expression of their war enthusiasms. Deeply immersed in their with Russian settlements. The ten own affairs, many of them are even Entence and Portugal-rightly em- more with us, returning to France reserve for their governments the cooling toward the Marshal or toright to declare null and void any ward France, as his enemies fendly auses in the Russo-German treaty believe, but in the difference between the America of 1917, moved with a But there are still elements at and the America of 1922, once more Genoa which want to bring in the steeped in her own concerns. Amer-prosperous villages like the Pelprescribed question of German reparations. The ingenuous Keynes says in "The World": "The statesmen and they forget, what Joffre represented important, and perhaps soluble." seeds for Congressmen, Congress is disposed to welcome a better stand-Keynes accepts openly the German- now endeavoring to save $25,000 by ardized system of government re-Russian view that the conference forcing the Inter-American High sent the secrecy that has surrounded may discuss any questions it pleases. Commission to liquidate its affairs the whole affair. The fact that the Soulogue agreements, breaking up the people, and even to Congress- with the fear that they will be sad-France with obstructing the eco- of the value of the Inter-American consent of the governed. High Commission to the nation. Or- It is true that the old township M. Pomeare is entitled to protest ganized in 1916 for the purpose of pian is cumbersome and archaic. against this strategy. France went facilitating better financial relations and that the Board of Supervisors o Genoa to sit in an economic con- between the Americas, it has done has never functioned as such a ference with limited jurisdiction. much to increase mutual understand- board should function. But if West-She expects the conference to be con- ing and has facilitated commercial chester County is to become a city ducted in good faith. If it is not- intercourse between the continents, its taxpayers want to know about if German reparations are drawn in With headquarters in the Treasury it in advance and to form their own she will be justified in leaving the Building in Washington, the comconference. She will not have broken mission has sub-committees of Amer- The territory to be comprised in t up. The reparation amenders will ican business advisers for each of the new city includes vast stretches the different nations, who are in of country as wild as that in many Those who want to see Germany touch with the Washington office. Western states, great stretches of relieved of her reparation debt to Each nation of Latin America, in farm lands, as well as woodland and the Allies always stage the same turn, has an organization in its own stone quarries. The prospect of imsituation. France is the villain in capital, which communicates with posing city taxes upon these lands many" and standing in the way of As a result of the commission's owners than the prospect of paying European readjustment—the sort of activities during the last few years for highways and sewers through readjustment, of course, which will numerous treaties have been made to them is pleasing to the city taxdiminish France's rights under the facilitate the work of commercial payers.

Unwise Economy

Versailles Treaty. Treaty pledges, travelers and make it easier to in- 1f the Legislature desires the apconference agenda, diplomatic assur- troduce samples. In several in- proval of the people of one of the ances mean nothing. If they benefit stances, owing to the efforts of the richest counties in the state it will France they are not binding. If commission, customs regulations so amend the law passed at the last France thinks that they are and acts have been simplified so as to exin that belief, then she is an in- pedite the passage of goods. So any such radical change in their curable "militarist" and a foe to also a pan-American trade-mark social organization. bureau has been established, and The Francophobes and Teuto- much has been done toward bringphiles are the real factor threaten- ing about greater uniformity of commercial laws among the Southern Foreign Debts and the Bonus nating some of the causes of fric- which $1,600,000 has been set aside, methods in Berlin:

finitely complicates the other. The done and can continue to do work its cousin, are pseudo sciences which ostensible purpose is to make the which is of genuine value to Ameri- are to-day in about the condition soldiers feel that they will be paid can exporters is plain. Equally im- which enveloped the physical scithrough the repayment of the debt, portant, however, is its effect upon onces in pre-Baconian days. They But it ignores the probability that the general relations between the are afflicted with a deductive spirit. no adequate payment is likely to be United States and the Latin-Ameri. Few take the trouble to ascertain made within sufficient time to ful- can nations. Animated by a genuine their facts before reaching their fill the requirements of the measure, desire to co-operate, it has already conclusions. Its advocates pretend that they can helped to remove in part the dispay cash by means of uncollected trust of the United States which is of the social organism are too busy fect upon the debt problem itself. That work of this importance about investigations or how human Already highly complicated, the should be stopped for the sake of beings act in society. Discussions of question of the repayment of the economy when ten times the money what they should do are more interforeign debts is intricately bound so economized is squandered in fool- esting. We have an abundant literaup in problems of ethics and justice ishness is unfortunate. There is ture on what men ought to do, but as well as of finance and interna- much to be gained by keeping alive little as to what they actually do tional policies. Its settlement prom- the Inter-American High Commis- and are likely to continue doing.

and in its turn wielding a great in- with our Latin-American relations Both are arguers from general asfluence upon the political and eco- which have been abruptly and inex- sumption. So sociology languishes nomic reconstruction of the world, the plicably terminated, to the prejudice and public education concerning a problem of settling the debts can be of American prestige among the vital matter is neglected. It is dif-

Sound Business Sense

To drag it into the bonus dis- The insertion of a clause calling cals, who rely on dreams and asare aroused by that issue. It will indicates that Mr. Hays is carnestly knowledge of what capital is and out hopelessly entangle a question of striving to make good in his new job. of what wages are paid, and of the Your nostrils penciled just a thought

Either of these reasons is suffi- any other great American industry sometimes is selfish and sometimes linking these two separate questions. children as to grown men and women. by turns, and his social institutions When taken together they show the What the children are to-day the represent his contradictions. But it scheme to be at the same time dishonest and fraught with dangerous contended that as long as the pict- and thus to have a basis for pre- I treasure most a thin Damascus ures are clean it makes no difference diction of future conduct. as to the characters of those who | If the tests of induction provide

Whether on a mission to America. The president of a great bank was the profitless perpetual rotation war. Had he failed in September, with the decent-minded, who compose who walk humbly in the footsteps of industry is secure if the pictures are

Pawns in a Political Game

The plan to make a city of the County of Westchester is the plan To-day the emotionalism of the war is over. Americans, while they have not forgotten, have abandoned the outward expression of their war endoughed by the offenders against Germany was accordingly outward expression of their war endoughed.

To-day the emotionalism of the war of politicians. Comparatively few of the residents of the cities, villages and towns concerned knew More Truth Than Poetry anything about it till they read of it in Monday's Tribune.

Allied powers—Big Entente, Little unaware that Marshal Joffre is once of government has never been publiely discussed in Westchester. Few the Russe-German treaty incident by less demonstrative than that of 1917, evidence, however, that it has been mented on it editorially. There is By night to park in waters dark the reason is to be found not in any in process of formulation for some own, have kept it under cover. spirit akin to that of the crusades, bers, Mount Vernon, New Rochelle hams. Rye and Larchmont, have never been told how the change would benefit them or whether it would benefit them at all. Most of them believe that its only effect would be to increase taxation.

rected to violating the Cannes and While the value of free seeds to without a referendum inspires them plan may be put into execution loubt | dled with a government without the

Science and Sociology

The Carnegie Corporation's new The proposal to link the bonus tion between North and South Amer- finds spread before it a field of usefulness which invites cultivation.

bills the value of which is disputed. felt in so many Latin-American propagating or defending preconceived beliefs. They don't bother ficult to say which element does the greater harm—the conservatives, who rely on tradition, or the radi-

The motion pictures differ from rational and an instinctive animal, appear in them. But this is dull some unchallengeable verities we may hope in some degree to slow up Few people in New York will be rohon disturbed by the report that here- sit up indignantly and demand why a France would rejuctantly withdraw with the first enthusiasm of partite behave themselves. The men who after Senator James J. Walker is Destroying Power should select it as to give all his time to the motion a meteor target.

> Burglars in Twenty-eighth Street were not neutral, was outwardly dif- money by avoiding contracts that paid boy baseball players twentyfive cents each not to watch them from a reliable correspondent across 1922. Those were days of fervid ex- elthough public opinion will not per- burgle. All of the police were out the Styx that on each trip of the Ge-

By James J. Montague

The Biter Bitten It seemed absurd when first I heard That one can teach a trout

And chase mosquitoes out.
"A trout," said I, "could never

And could not seek his prey Amid the air, and that is where Mosquitoes mostly stay.

I learned ere long that I was The trout need not have wings.

Nor move beyond his placid pond To catch the pesky things. They light in schools in mantling To lay their little eggs-

Whereon the trout comes dashing And grabs them by the legs.

And so I caught and tamed and A lithe and speckled beauty, And turned him out to set about This necessary duty.
"While I'm in bed at night," I

"His vigil he will keep. And in July and August Shall get a little sleep.

I have no doubt my little trout Possessed the will to please. But vain my hope that he could

With insect pests like these. Alas! I found he swam around Through long and sleepless And lashed his tail, without avail, To scratch mosquito bites!

Too Hefty That San Francisco jury must have regretted the fact that, being only fourteen in number, they were unable to carry the film actor they acguitted out of the courtroom on their

Disappointed

The Germans got to Genoa about four years too late to get what they expected to get there.

The Explanation then he isn't getting around as much as he used to (Copyright by James J. Montague)

Berlin's Police Patrol To the Editor of The Tribune.

of Chicago, in the current number of "Statistical Abstract of the United "The American Lutheran Survey," States, 1914"; "Navy Yearbook, 1915"; nations, with the purpose of climi- institute of economics, to sustain which contains this account of police "Annual Reports of the Treasurer of revolver on his belt and a carbine on ter of Porto Rico, 1910." file of six men. This has a dampening effect on any lawless demonstramen and women made a raid on a the information in.

New York, April 22, 1922.

The Tower

TO JEAN LAUGH at what men call your beauty, Jean.

Your lazy-lidded eyes mask pride untold:

You are too white and slim for Venus' mold:

too keen. Sometimes you smile the cruelest smile I've seen,

As one who, on a frosty morn, flings gold To hapless beggars, trembling in

And waits to gloat upon a sight so the cold.

blade. That swung from silken hips and slit black throats In far Cathay: a rug with worn spots, too.

have made: A violin, a "Strad," with liquid notes. And yet I'd trade them all, my Jean, for you. L. B. JR.

With the example sitting right on the porstep, you can't really blame West-

Asbury Park has a perfect right to

Who was the optimist who named the Genoa gathering a conference?

With All Stops at Times Square Sir: I have definite information benna Express, beginning May 1, there will be attached a special car with the Mr. Dempsey astonished Paris in seats running lengthwise down the tweeds. He would have astonished sides. Those passengers in this train who used to travel in the New York subways with their legs crossed will be compelled to ride in this car in the The Chicago Opera Company had name manner, while peripatetic devils in the aisles will bore into the passengers' feet with ardent skewers.

We don't suppose it would be worth while to attach even the smallest parfor car for the comfort of those femi nine souls who used to thank the mer who rose and gave them seats.

MORNINGSIDE The tender green of an April day; The wind of March and the sun of Manufacturers these days seem to book, he says naively:

not approve? Yours. J. THROCKMORTON CUSH.

fixedly at the unwhiskered person of then moved up from the semi-serious be published after adjournment of the and I laughed; but I was far from Julius, the office boy, until he became Sunday columns to the dead earnest Genoa conference. confused and started an unwonted editorial page of the paper. I was Bert Leston Taylor used to say What are you, one of those saddest of burst of industry. We looked at the made editorial writer with 'social that his idea of a good time all birds, the solemn looking wise old mansions housing the editorial minds justice' for my special province. would be to read George Moore owl who fears to lose his wise look if about us, and felt self-conscious.

never hung up for three-quarters of Chicago newspaper articles and 'social letter from Mr. Moore to Mr. Liveright I've seen in many a year. I marveled an hour trying to bridge the chasm ba- justice' editorials on a small scale. I rather discourages that exercise as a at O'Neill's wonderful sympathy and tween paragraphs. Wisdom flows from have removed the nice top soil and diversion, so humbly does he write of understanding of character and at his their pens with the regularity and showed what is going on beneath the the travails of composition. "The new great sense of humor. Does humor speed of copy from the A. P. machines. surface in America. I have given in work, 'impressions and Opinions,'" begin and end with the slapstick and Their minds are their abject slaves. Events, large and small, are merely tic picture of what large groups of year; for it, to be written this year, I mor in the brave facing of life thumb pressures on buttons, starting people in the depths unfortunately must give my whole mind to it, and by and a philosophic acceptance of the machinery that reels out editorials."

We yearned for knowledge. And then me for that. They think that such two things at the same time and to flit the Anna Christies did not laugh at we looked at the editorial bookcase, things ought not to be talked about, about from one place to another; for the world with sorry laughter the four stories high, with a dusty pane in written about. I differ with those peo- me it is not possible. A great pant of world would crush them. was the Pierian Spring -whatever that like our own not to take cognizance of only just free from 'In Single Strict- en, the ridiculous, the drunkes, the We hear little of Babe Ruth. But was the motherlode of editorial wis- what large sections of our people think ness, the last proofs of which I am black man on the stage and reveal dom. Even a tenderfoot, searching for and feel and resent, in these days of forwarding to you to-day. The few them as human beings. His audiences nuggets of knowledge, there might world stress and struggle, is, to put corrections that you will find on these are composed not only of the critics make a strike. We went and searched, it most mildly, shorteighted. On the first shelf, reading from left to right, we found:

Sir: Apropos of the "crime wave," "Report of Secretary of State of in America, except where the working Moore edition, to be ready in June, ents, I'm for any sudience that is an there is an article by T. F. Dornblaser, Indiana, 1902"; "Navy Yearbook, 1913"; girl marries the boss and the section One is "In Single Strictness," the other audience of Eugene O'Neill's. B.C. the United States, 1912 and 1917";

"The police in Berlin are alert and "Annual Reports of the Commissioner well armed. They patrol the streets of Navigation, 1910, 1912, 1914"; "Abby twos. You seldom see one alone, stract of the Twelfth Census," "Thirty-On certain days you may see them in seventh Report of the United States To the Editor of The Tribune. small groups, and occasionally a lorry Civil Service Commission," "Brazil in bristling with thirty or forty bayo- 1912," "World's Work, September, nets, is driven through the principal 1914"; "List of United States Judges, streets. Each policeman carries a Attorneys and Marshals, 1911"; Regis-authority. It is said the bullets they trait of the gentleman who, some say, use will plow their way through a it Bayard Taylor and some say isn't.

"A few days ago a hungry mob of you which reference book you'll find result. Now, immense buildings are decreased 373,000.

W. P. ELSON. present height, we'd lots rather own and each vast mass surmounted with some other person's.

"SHOULD OLD ACQUAINTANCE BE FORGOTS"

Books By Percy Hammond

think that when they have evolved a "In my newspaper reporting, some new device for getting ink into a foun-tain pen they have done all that should the then Sunday editor, Mr. Handy. be praised. The pioneer is always as representative of governments, this. made me go down to the foreign la- sailed. I am gratified that you have that and the other. The Messrs, Dutboring people and tell of their lives, retained so sympathetic a memory of ten publish him; as they do Houdin's Sir: I may have my faults, but will bring to light their wrongs and griev- my early struggles as a young re- "Paper Magic," in which that necromanyou be good enough to say for me that lances, so that the American public porter." I never write to the newspapers wise might understand the newcomers. cracks about the funny little habits might adjust American conditions and From Messra. Boul and Liveright directory. which my friends have of which I do institutions to their needs and in turn comes the news that the five best sellers publish the ditions and institutions. We searched for inspiration. We almost every paper in the country was Crossways."

"They," we muttered to ourself, "are big canvas what I tried to do in those block all the next day. A plaintive tie" stands to me as the finest play 'The Road' a true and, I believe, artis- he says, "will have to be written this the custard pie? Or is there not he We felt humilisted and uneducated. There are people who look askance at is possible for other people to think of selves into our undeing? If front of each shelf. There we decided ple most emphatically. In a democracy the present year is gone by, and I am O'Neill can put the uncouth, the fall

"Handbook of South Carolina, 1907"; to figure as material for the novelist first five volumes of the limited Georga like you and your ladylike correspond-

Elias Tobenkin, the young author of hand becomes a railroad president and "Peronik the Fool, Daphnis and Chlos "The Road," is a little resentful of similar glad'stuff, I think this tendency etc." Mr. Moore is writing another May;
Steep cliff, gray stone—abore, in bronze,

"The Road," is a little resential of to taboo working people in fletion, except book, named "A Parley."

when they are robbed of all reality or turned into flunkies, is about reaching "Beasts. Men and Gods" is a tran-among our masses. In a few years, or chinery of the Craffet regime and who adjust the immigrant to American con- in their Modern Library series are Os- Edith Thomson, which tells about car Wilde's "Dorian Gray," "The Way of beautiful woman of forty-one, married "There were then many people who All Flesh." Whitman's Poems, Pepys's to a mere child of twenty-five, and of We think the above communication is looked askance at both the editor and Diary and "Madame Bovary." The their life in Washington, D. C., among a forgery. Mr. Cush, when writing to the myself for doing this sort of interpre- least popular are "Treasure Island." the foreign diplomatists. papere, always signs himself "Veritas." tative work. A few years later, however. "Soldiers Three" and "Diana of the glared at the portrait of the whiskered doing this sort of thing, going over Grey is not "John Paris" who wrote is to laugh! It was your enthusiasm gentleman who some say is Bayard the ground that I had already covered. "Kimono." The author is evidently for "Anna Christie" that inspired me Taylor and some say isn't. We stared You may recall that my writing was another statesman whose identity will to go. And I went, Percy Hammond.

> "I have in 'The Road' done on a all night and kick him around the he ceases to be solemn! "Anna Chriswe now have 'depths' in America as giving my whole mind to it I mean the irony of life and the abelsewhere-feel and think and say, that I must think of nothing else. It surd way in which events shape themvery last proofs represent two whole who appreciate his art, but of ord-"Since Jack London's death working days of work." . . . Two hitherto nary human beings also, who may people and their problems have ceased unpublished works will be found in the laugh in the wrong place, or cry. Un-

The trumpeting angel of St. John's. rural Wisconsin, where he is finding its apex. I am to-day scolded by some script of the personal experiences in E. L. McA. facts and impressions for his next critics for having given an unvarnished Siberia of Dr. A. F. Ossendow ky, #50

What Readers Are Thinking

Plain Apartment Houses Sir: If there is not in our city government some bureau, committee or department, authorized to supervise To the Editor of The Tribune. and approve or disapprove the plans Sir: The horses and mules are with you. Why don't you say some with you. Why don't you say some education seems to be that it teaches many handsome buildings were the horses on farms in the United States As a meddler and egotist he has be rapidly rising to a height of 200 feet, In 1920 the average price of horses are perfect. There never were as few small delicatessens which were guilty of overcharging their customers, but in less than twenty minutes the police dispersed the ing away all the things we've stored in sembling a small flat hat on the head of a big fat man! New York, April 24, 1922.

Horses in Decline

tractor and truck. In New York City he tried to defeat Lenroot, of Formerly architects of large apart- from 1910 to 1919 the number of consin, and also when he did all he ment houses were evidently instructed horses decreased from 128,000 to could to elect that man Ford in Michigan by the owners to have due regard to 75,000. In Ohio, from 1917 to 1919, gan, who did not even know who Bene-The chief advantage of a classical good looks in making their plans, and from 965,000 to 862,000. In 1920 the dict Arnold was?

minutes the police dispersed the rioters and sent them, browneaten, the attic.

brown brick walls, with almost counties show that values are very low, the attic.

brown brick walls, with almost counties show that values are very low, the attic.

brown brick walls, with almost counties show that values are very low, the attic.

brown brick walls, with almost counties and trucks are in on. James Reed will take care of the police dispersed the shown brick walls, with almost counties and trucks are in on. James Reed will take care of the police dispersed the police disperse ises to be one of the most difficult sion. To starve it into disintegraJohn Stuart Mill on one side of a learn a lesson from the conquered of the most difficult sion. To starve it into disintegraJohn Stuart Mill on one side of a learn a lesson from the conquered of the most difficult sion. To starve it into disintegraJohn Stuart Mill on one side of a learn a lesson from the conquered of the most difficult sion. To starve it into disintegraJohn Stuart Mill on one side of a learn a lesson from the conquered of the most difficult sion. To starve it into disintegraJohn Stuart Mill on one side of a learn a lesson from the conquered of the most difficult sion. To starve it into disintegraJohn Stuart Mill on one side of a learn a lesson from the conquered of the most difficult sion. To starve it into disintegraJohn Stuart Mill on one side of a learn a lesson from the conquered of the most difficult sion. To starve it into disintegraJohn Stuart Mill on one side of a learn a lesson from the conquered of the most difficult sion. To starve it into disintegraJohn Stuart Mill on one side of a learn a lesson from the conquered of the most difficult sion. To starve it into disintegraJohn Stuart Mill on one side of a learn a lesson from the conquered of the most difficult sion. To starve it into disintegraJohn Stuart Mill on one side of a learn a lesson from the conquered of the most difficult sion. To starve it into disintegraJohn Stuart Mill on one side of a learn a lesson from the conquered of the most difficult sion. To starve it into disintegraJohn Stuart Mill on one side of a learn a lesson from the conquered of the most difficult sion. To starve it into disintegraJohn Stuart Mill on one side of a learn a lesson from the conquered of the most difficult sion. To starve it into disintegraJohn Stuart Mill on one side of a learn a lesson from the conquered of the most difficult sion. To starve it into disintegraJohn Stuart Mill on one side of a learn a lesson from the conquered of the most dif Is it possible that New York can We can't indorse this Own Your kind to relieve their depressing same- to multiply. Therefore, the warning are going against a bigger man than

THOMAS H. GORDNIER. F. F. V. a narrow excuse for a cornice re- Watts, Calif., April 17, 1922.

From Missouri T. C. To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: I see an extract in "The Kansas City Star" in which you accuse Senator Reed of blatherskite impudencehis shoulder. Every pedestrian knows We returned to our typewriter and of architects for new apartment rapidly being displaced by the auto, thing about the gall he showed when equal; still you think that his ideas

G. G. SCHAEFFER. Polo, Mo., April 20, 1922.